

Manitoba Hydro Undertaking #19

Look into whether there is any confidentiality associated with filing summary paper received from big four accounting firms. If not confidential, file the summary paper received. Advise whether summary paper has been filed with other regulators in other jurisdictions. Also, advise whether there will be final paper coming.

Manitoba Hydro has contacted its auditors (Ernst & Young) and they have indicated that the presentation materials are considered confidential and were not intended for public disclosure.