February 14, 2012

The Public Utilities Board (PUB) advises that Graham Lane, Chairman of the PUB since March 2004, will be retiring March 31st of this year.

Mr. Lane, a Chartered Accountant since 1968, has had a long and distinguished career as a senior executive in the public sector in Manitoba, serving at the Public Utilities Board, the Workers Compensation Board, and the Public Investment Corporation of Manitoba - the pre-cursor of the Crown Corporations Council, and at the Crown Investment Corporation of Saskatchewan.

Mr. Lane was also Vice-President (Finance) at the University of Winnipeg, and, earlier in his career an executive in the financial services sector. He has also volunteered in the charitable services sector.

Recently, The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International named Mr. Lane a Paul Harris Fellow in appreciation of his lengthy vocational (public) service. Mr. Lane recognizes that all members, staff and advisors of PUB share in the award.

PUB is a quasi-judicial administrative tribunal that independently reaches its findings through evidence-based processes. PUB has regulatory and rate setting responsibilities with respect to major provincial Crown Corporations, municipal utilities and other matters allocated by statute or government direction.
