

Undertaking 136: Wind project land acquisition timeframe

Wesley Stevens to ask developer if the time estimate includes the time period for land acquisition.

Response

Wind developers queried by Power Advisory have confirmed that the three-year period for wind project capital expenditures does not include project acquisition. Project acquisition may take as little as one year, and as much as ten years, prior to the three-year project capital expenditure period.